PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Since launching our program in 2000, Everybody Dance LA! has transformed lives and communities through the power of dance. For a generation of families, our high-quality, low-cost dance and youth education programs have provided a safe and nurturing environment that has given parents peace of mind and pride in what their children have achieved. Dance has positively improved our youths' academic achievements while building stronger minds and bodies, resulting in confident and educated adults who are successful in their careers and communities.

THE GABRI AWARD

The Gabri Award was established to honor the work of our founder, Liza Bercovici, in memory of her daughter, Gabriella Axelrad, who is the inspiration for Everybody Dance LA! The Gabri Award is bestowed to those who are champions of arts education for every Los Angeles child, regardless of gender, ethnicity, financial standing, or neighborhood.

2025 GABRI AWARD HONOREE: DANIEL HERR

Daniel Herr grew up in Southern California, graduating from Harvard-Westlake High School in 2000. Daniel then attended Johns Hopkins University, where he studied Political Science, Economics and Business and graduated Phi Beta Kappa. During his time at Johns Hopkins, Daniel became prolific in using a Bloomberg Financial terminal, igniting his passion for investing and financial markets. After college, Daniel began his career in financial markets by working at David A. Noyes & Company in Chicago. During his last 20+ years in finance, Daniel has worked with a number of companies including Pointillist Partners, LLC, Monere Investments, Inc, Herr Investment Group LLC and Journey Advisory Group LLC. Daniel is also passionate about agriculture and invests in dairy farming operations in South Dakota and Central California. Philanthropy and volunteer work have always been important to Daniel, and he currently serves on the board of directors of the Cohen's Syndrome Research Foundation and on the Development and Finance Committees of Trinity Episcopal School of Austin. Although Southern California will always be Daniel's home, he currently resides in Austin, Texas with his wife Lauren and their four children.
